Winter School in Methods and Techniques University of Vienna, 14 – 21 February 2014

Based on participants' positive feedback, we are offering accommodation in the same hotels as used during ECPR's 2nd Winter School in February 2013.

Two options are on offer: one for students on a budget, and the other aimed at participants who want to stay in a single or a double room.

Of course, it is not mandatory to use this offer, so please feel free to make your own arrangements.
